

Photo Contest

“From research to action”

In the framework of CISEN4, the Organising Comitee invites you to participate in the photo contest “From research to action”.

Rules

1. Participants: the contest is open to all attendees to CISEN4, with or without presentation of works. Each participant can submit up to two (2) photographs or paintings.
2. Subject: the works of art submitted should follow the congress leit motiv “From research to action” associated to Ecosystem Services. It will be specially appreciated those works that show the collaborative work with different social actors (stakeholders, decision makers, etc.). It is also included the representation of land-use scenarios for choice experiments and/or participative mapping in the form of paintings, drawings or altered photographs. Photographs and paintings can be made in any technique and style (color, black and white, etc.). They should be original works not presented to other contests.
3. Submission: participants should submit their works in digital format in 20 x 30 cm. size (or similar for paintings) and 300 dpi resolution to infocisen@geap.com.ar indicating title and author. The deadline for work submission is 15 September 2015.
4. Judging: a jury integrated by members of the Organising and Scientific Comitees of CISEN4 will judge and select the winners (up to three) and will announce its decision in the previous days of the congress.
5. Prizes: the winners will receive books donated by the members of the Comitees. The prizes and certificates will be given during the congress. All the participating works will be exposed during the congress days and uploaded to our website and facebook. The hard copies will be at the expense of CISEN4 organisation.
6. Rights: the participation in this contest does not imply the cession of any rights over the works with the exceptions of their exposition during the congress days mentioning the authors. The authors can make any use of their works (including taking the hard copies) once the congress is finished.
